Day to think about: June 20

World Refugee Day is a time to recognize the courage, resilience, and dignity of millions of people around the world who have been forced to flee their homes because of war, violence, persecution, and disaster. Behind every refugee statistic is a human story — a family seeking safety, a parent protecting children, a person longing for peace, stability, and the opportunity to rebuild a life with hope and dignity. This day calls us not only to raise awareness but also to deepen our compassion and commitment to justice. Refugees are not defined solely by loss; they are individuals of strength, talent, faith, and perseverance who enrich the communities that welcome them. As we observe World Refugee Day, may we remember our shared humanity and reaffirm the responsibility to stand with those who are displaced and vulnerable. Through advocacy, hospitality, prayer, and practical support, we can help create a world where every person is treated with dignity and where no one is forced to face suffering and uncertainty alone.
